Conflict Minerals Statement¹

CSE Corporation purchases electronic components which are assembled and included in many of our finished products. Electronic components contain various metals, including tantalum, tin, tungsten and gold. CSE Corporation does not directly purchase any Conflict Minerals² from any source and does not knowingly procure any product containing Conflict Minerals from the Conflict Region³.

Notes:

1. In the U. S., Section 1502 of the 2010 Dodd-Frank Act requires public companies to file an annual special disclosure with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission beginning in 2014 indicating if their products include metals sourced from the Conflict Region. CSE Corporation is not subject to this requirement. We make this statement available, however, as a courtesy to our customers upon request.
2. Conflict Minerals include Tantalum, Tin, Gold, Tungsten and any derivatives from these minerals.
3. Conflict Region includes the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Angola, Burundi, and the Central African Republic, The Republic of Congo, Uganda, Rwanda, South Sudan, Tanzania and Zambia.
